Time to Celebrate 100 Black Men Austin!

AUSTIN, Texas — The 22nd Annual Men of Honor Gala Fundraiser will take place this Dec. 5, to honor the 30th Anniversary of 100 Black Men Austin.

100 Black Men of America, Inc. is committed to the intellectual development of youth and the economic empowerment of the African American community based on the following precepts: respect for family, spirituality, justice and integrity.

“I want to pose a challenge to the men in the community,” said President Karl Spencer. “I want you all to take time to say ‘you know what? I want to give back and help and pull someone up by the wayside’.”

In addition to the gala, 100 Black Men of America features programs such as the Texas Empowerment Academy, Cultural Competency Initiative, and the First Tee Golf Sponsorship. These all help connect younger people to older people who have advice and help to offer.

About Us

The 100 Black Men of Austin seeks to serve as a beacon of leadership by utilizing our diverse talents to create environments where our children are motivated to achieve, and to empower our people to become self-sufficient shareholders in the economic and social fabric of the communities we serve. Our mission is to improve the quality of life within the Austin community and enhance educational and economic opportunities for African American minorities.
